About the Farmers' Markets and Roadside Stands
Approved by the Louisiana Department of Agriculture & Forestry

- Arrive early for best selection. Farmers often sell all their produce before the end of market hours.
- Fresh fruits, vegetables, and herbs you will find at the market are locally grown.
- Most produce at the market is picked that morning or the day before.
- Fresher produce is more nutritious, tastes better, and lasts longer.
- Please return and become a regular customer. Support your local farmers by buying locally grown produce fresh from the farm.
